

What Is a Support Coordinator?

Support to understand and use your NDIS plan.

What do they do?

A Support Coordinator can help you understand your plan, explore options, organise supports and work towards goals.

What this means for you

You do not have to work everything out alone.

Finding supports

They can help you learn about services, compare options and connect with providers and community activities.

What this means for you

You choose what is right for you.

Your goals

They talk with you about what is important and help plan steps towards your goals.

What this means for you

Your goals guide the work.

Confidence and independence

They can help you build skills, solve problems and make informed decisions.

What this means for you

You stay in control.

Do I have one?

Not everyone has Support Coordination funding. Check your NDIS plan if you are unsure.

What this means for you

You can ask questions about your plan.
